THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From March 3. to March 10. 1736,7.

BY THE HONOURABLE

JAMES LOGAN, Eſq;

Preſident, and the Council of the Province of Pennſylvania,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the Honourable THOMAS BROUGHTON, Eſq; Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina, by his Letter directed to our Preſident, bearing date the fifth Day of laſt February, hath ſignified the Receipt of certain Advices from Commodore Dent, of His Majeſty's Squadron at Jamaica; that an Armament of Spaniſh Ships of War and Troops were preparing at the Havana to be ſent to St. Auguſtine, and from thence attack the New Colony of Georgia, and the ſaid Province of South-Carolina; which laſt was thereupon taking all poſſible Precautions to give the ſaid New Colony all the Aſſiſtance in their Power, and putting themſelves in the beſt Poſture of Defence, and for this End had prohibited the Exportation of any kind of Proviſions, to prevent the Spaniards at St. Auguſtine receiving any Supply; but as they may be ſupplied from this Government, it is requeſted that the propereſt means may be uſed to hinder any Veſſels going from hence to that Garriſon: WE have therefore thought fit to iſſue this Our Proclamation, hereby ſtrictly Charging and Requiring all His Majeſty's Subjects within this Government, that they do not by any means directly or indirectly, furniſh the Spaniards, or any of them, with any Warlike Stores, Merchandizes, or Proviſions of any kind whatſoever, whereby a Furtherance may be given to ſuch Enterprize againſt the Dominions and Territories of the Crown of Great Britain, as they will anſwer the contrary at their Peril.

GIVEN in Council under the Great Seal of the Province, at Philadelphia, the 7th Day of March 1736,7, in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Second, by the Grace of God of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and ſo forth.

By Order of the Preſident and Council.
R. CHARLES, Secr.

JAMES LOGAN.

GOD Save the KING.

CORK, October 29.

WE are inform'd, that the unfortunate young Lady who ſhot herſelf a few Days ago, had ſome Months before taken a Doſe of Arſenick, but the Effects of the Quality were prevented by the Quantity; for her Stomach being unable to retain as much as ſhe took, diſcharged it: She was juſt recovered from a long Illneſs occaſioned by it, when ſhe deſtroyed herſelf. The only Reaſon ſhe gave for the Action was, that her Life was a Burthen to her; and the Height of her Concern, even in the Moment of Death was, that ſhe had not ſhot herſelf thro' her Head inſtead of her Breaſt: She was in all her Conduct, except the Attempts on her Life, a young Lady of excellent Underſtanding. The People who pretend moſt to know her, impute this Violence to diſappointed Love.

London, Sept. 6. It is now reported at Hanover, that his Majeſty will not ſet out for England till about the Beginning of January.

We hear from Ruſhall in Norfolk, that laſt Week a Man and his Wife having ſome Words, he went out and cut ſome Brambles, with which he hang'd himſelf on a Tree, and was found with one Knee upon the Ground: The Coroner's Inqueſt found it Felo de ſe, and order'd him to be buried buried in the Cross-ways: But his Wife sent for a Surgeon, and sold the Body for Half a Guinea; the Surgeon feeling about the Body, the Wife said, He is fit for your Purpose, for he is as fat as Butter; and then he was put naked into a Sack, with his Legs hanging out, thrown upon a Cart, and convey'd to the Surgeon's.

November 8. They write from the Hague, That the States of Zealand have requested their High Mightinesses the States General to represent to his Britannick Majesty, the Reasons which cannot suffer them to depart from the repeated Resolution they have taken, to reunite the Sovereignity of the Marquisate of Ter-Veer and Flushing to their Province, paying to his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange the Equivalent they have offered him in Money. 'Tis assured the States General have renewed the Assurance to his Majesty, that they should be desirous of all things to give him every possible Proof of their Respect, and to testify to the World the high Regard they have for whatever he recommends; but that they are disabled to interfere in the present Case. These Letters add, that their High Mightinesses, to give Satisfaction to the several Towns of the Provinces, the People appearing to interest themselves for the Prince of Orange, have ordered 100000 Copies of his Majesty's Letter, and their Answer annexed, to be Printed and dispersed, to satisfy the Minds of the Publick in relation to the said Affair.

Extract of a Letter from Corsica, dated Octob. 22. N. S. at St. Boniface.

The 8th Inst. our pretended King Theodore sent his Nephew with a Commission to Three of the Chiefs of the Malecontents, in order to summon them to a Council the 10th, and had so good Success that he brought two with him to Boniface; and the third Petro de Giaffery, Nephew to the famous Giaffery, came with a Company of 200 chosen Men under his Command, who, before he could be persuaded to wait on the Lord Theodore, desired to know the Reason of his Summons; upon which the King himself went to the Yard, accompanied by 12 armed Men of the People attached to him, and embraced him with such Tenderness, and spoke to him in so Pathetick a Manner, that the said Chief was overcome with his Kindness, and went with him into his Apartments. The 18th a Council was held in the Lord Theodore's Presence; who laid before them the sad State and ruinous Condition of that Island, his readiness to undertake any Thing for its Benefit, and the Love he had for the Persons of the Chiefs of the Country; and back'd his kind Declarations to them with a Present to each of the Chiefs of 2000 Livres, a new Silver Hilted Sword, a Pair of Pistols, &c. He then frankly told them, that he expected no other Succours than what he could procure from private Persons abroad; that his Trust was only in their Bravery and known Courage; and that, if they would but unite their Forces and Wills with his, he did not doubt of a speedy Success: Upon which the Chiefs came into his Measures, and obliged themselves to recal their Forces, and promised to use their Endeavours to make the rest of the Island to take up Arms, and said they hoped to answer his good Intentions, and to subdue the whole Island to his Command; and desired that the first Undertaking may be against Bastia. The Lord Theodore received about a Week ago above Fifty Spanish Deserters, among whom is a Lieutenant who formerly belong'd to the Walloon Guards; and he now promises himself great Matters.

P. S. The Council was held about Eleven of the Clock in the Morning, and about One in the Afternoon they proceeded to Church, to give Thanks to the Almighty for the Success thereof, when the Te Deum was Sung by twelve Musicians; and afterwards a Collect was Read by the Abbot Lacerty, imploring God's Assistance, and all possible Success in the Undertaking of the King's Army. The Rejoicings on this Occasion were Universal, and continued to the 15th Inst. and on the 10th the Lord Theodore's Nephew put himself at the Head of 300 regular Troops to join the Malecontents, who had then with them Ten Pieces of Ordinance, and some Mortars, for an Expedition.

The French King has lately made an Order, by which he reserves the Revenues of vacant Governments to himself.

Dublin, Nov. 20. Last Week the Wife of Mr. Ward a Shoemaker in Ship Street, went to see an Acquaintance on the other Side of the Water, and found her just dead, and an old Woman laying her out, and seeing no one assist the Woman, gave her a helping Hand to dress her, but upon going to undress her Head, the other Woman would by no Means, allow her to do it, affirming that it had been done before, upon which Mrs. Ward insisted no farther, but helped to finish what they were about, and then went Home. The next Day she went a little way out of Town with the Burial, and returned Home in the Evening, and went with her Husband pretty early to Bed, but was no sooner asleep, than she dreamt the deceased Woman came and asked her, 'Mrs. Ward, why did you not open my 'Head, for I was murdered by my Husband?" Upon which Mrs. Ward awoke very much surpriz'd, and told her Husband it, who bid her go to sleep and not mind such idle Fancies; upon which Mrs. Ward took no farther Notice till the next Night, when she was no sooner in Bed and asleep but she dreamt the same Woman came again to her, and told her, 'Mrs. Ward, since you did not open 'my Head, you must now come to me;' Upon saying which, she took Mrs. Ward by the Wrist and gave her Arm a twist, which obliged her to cry out in a most terrible Manner, the Pain was so excessive, and never ceas'd skreaming till she died, which was about three o'Clock the next Morning; and when dead there was the Print of two Fingers and a Thumb indented almost to the Bone on her Wrist. The former buried Woman was taken up on Monday last and examin'd, and a large Bruise was found on the Back of her Head, and several others about her Shoulders, which the Persons then present pass'd by, saying that they might have happened by her hitting against the Coffin in the Carriage to the Grave.

London, Nov. 27. Last Week died of a Mortification in his Leg, at Wymondham in Norfolk, John Drake, Esq; a Gentleman of much Observation, and well read in the Manners of Mankind: He wisely retired from the noisy bustling Part of the World when young, and early built his Peace upon the firm Foundation of contented Virtue; his reigning Passion was the Love of Truth, his chief Aversion Flattery; his Sentiments he disclos'd in all Things, freely; dealt by all Men, without Distinction, plainly; yet liv'd belov'd and died lamented. His Estate, which is very considerable, he has left to his only Son; besides a much richer Legacy, his fair Example.

The last Letters from Florence bring, that Lord Theodore arrived at Leghorn in a Tartane, and that he speedily re-embarked on the same Vessel without making known the Design of this Expedition. We are informed, that his Affairs will in no Degree suffer by his absenting from the Isle of Corsica, having intrusted the Command of the Place, till his Return to a wise and an experienc'd Person. It's said, that upon his leaving the Island, he assured his Adherents, he only went to obtain the Succours he had so long expected. This Voyage, as well as the whole Conduct of this extraordinary Person affords Matter of Speculation to the Curious. Those who pretend to be the deepest read in Politicks tell us, that in thoroughly examining the Steps that Lord Theodore hath taken, they have discovered that he is only an Agent for the Court of Spain, with Designs to add this Island to the Dominion of the King of the two Sicilies; who in order to obtain it the more easily, has set this Machine to work, so to embarrass the Affairs of the Genoese, as to make them despair of holding that Kingdom, and consequently to put them upon parting with it upon easier Terms.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

Charlestown, Jan. 1. On Monday last the Wife of Mr. Brian a Carpenter, coming home by herself in the Evening, she went into the Kitchen, and sitting before the Fire she fell into a Fit, (as it is supposed, she being frequently seized with Fits) and tumbling with the Chair on her Back in the Fire, nobody then being present, she was found burnt to Death in a miserable Manner.

We he hear that one Williams, a Taylor by Trade, in St. John's Parish, living unhappy with his Wife, shot himself through the Head.

Feb. 5. On Thursday came into this Port His Majesty's Sloop the Drake Man of War, Capt. Fox Commander, dispatch'd by Commodore Dent from Jamaica, with Letters of great Consequence to this Province, which he Yesterday delivered to the Honourable the Lieut. Governor in Council, and the ſame were immediately taken into Conſideration by both Houſes now ſitting.

Feb. 12. Several Advices of great Conſequence making it highly neceſſary to put this Province in a State of Defence againſt any ſudden Attacks, both Houſes of Aſſembly now ſitting have thought proper for the Safety of this Province to concert ſuch Meaſures as might tend to that Effect; And in Order thereto, on Saturday laſt, an Act was ratified, entituled, "An Act to empower the Honourable Thomas Broughton, Eſq; His Majeſty's Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief in and over His Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina, and the Commander in Chief for the Time being, by and with the Advice and Conſent of His Majeſty's Honourable Council of the ſame, to lay an Embargo on, and to prohibit and ſtop from ſailing, any Ships or Veſſels now in any Port or Place, or which at any time or times during the preſent Seſſions of the General Aſſembly, ſhall be in any Port or Place within this Province, and to impreſs at any time during the ſaid Time, any Ships, Veſſels, Men, Mariners and Labourers, Horſes, Arms and Ammunition, and to prohibit the Exportation of Proviſions therein mentioned.

Expreſſes were likewiſe ſent with private Inſtructions and Diſpatches, to ſeveral Parts of this Province and to our neighbouring Provinces.

On Tueſday the four Foot Companies appeared in Arms, when by Order of the Governor in Council, 12 l. per Month and all Neceſſaries, were offered to any Perſon that will inliſt under Col. Hext to go to Port Royal, and we hear that 25 of the Switzers lately arrived in Capt. Dunbarr, inliſted themſelves immediately, who with 25 Men more under the Command of Lieutenant Chevillette are going to embark for Port Royal.

Yeſterday a Council of War was held in the Council-Chamber, and two of the Members of his Majeſty's Hon. Council together with the Members of the Hon. the Houſe of Commons, went to take a View of Johnſon's Fort. And his Majeſty's Man of War, the Shark, went out on a Cruize.

From the South-Carolina Gazette, February 19:

On Saturday laſt arrived here the Baltick Merchant, Capt. Mackenzie from Briſtol in 32 Days, the publick Prints we had by him give us the following Advices.

FROM the Hague; That ſince the Diſcovery of the Spaniards Deſign upon Georgia, a Converſation lately paſſed between Lord Waldgrave and Monſ. Trevigno in preſence of Cardinal de Fleury: My Lord told Monſ. Trevigno, that it was reported the King of Spain deſign'd to ſend a Squadron of Men of War into America, which if true, the King of Great Britain would think himſelf obliged to ſend another there in order to accommodate them: To which Monſ. Trevigno replied, Your King cannot do better, otherwiſe his Fleet may be in danger of rotting in the Tagus. Mr. Keene has likewiſe repreſented at Madrid, that if his Catholick Majeſty ſent any Men of War into America, the King of Great Britain would alſo ſend a Squadron there; which has greatly offended the Court of Madrid.------That her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange was delivered of a dead Princeſs, after a Conſultation of Phyſicians had been held, whether to ſave the Life of her Royal Highneſs, or the Child, her Labour being ſo extremely bad---That on the 20th Nov. laſt Mr. Slingelandt, the Grand Penſionary of Holland, died about 5 o'Clock in the Morning ſo ſuddenly, that the Servant who conſtantly attended him a Nights had hardly time to call his Lady to be a Witneſs of his Expiring. The Death of this great Man at this Juncture will naturally incline the the Eyes of the intriguing Powers of Europe towards Holland, in hopes to find their Account in the Nomination of his Succeſſor.---And that on the 4th December died there the Baron de Boetſaler in the 56th Year of his Age. He was Chief of the Nobles of Holland and Weſt Frieſland, Preſident of the Counſellor Commiſſaries of South Holland, Keeper of the great Seal of that Province, Keeper of the Feudal Chamber, great Councellor of the Banks of the Rhine, Tirular Abbot of the ancient Abby of Rhynsburg, a Director of the Eaſt-India Company, and high Bailiff of the Hague.---That there is now no more poſitive Talk about a Congreſs; and Spain, who ſeem'd at firſt unwilling to truſt to the Emperor's Renunciation, if it was guarantied by the Maritime Powers, talks no more of Guarantying, ſince his Britannick Majeſty and their High Mightineſſes have given plainly to underſtand, that they will by no means conſent to it, unleſs they are comprized in the Treaty, and have the Articles granted which they propoſe. This Alteration in the Conduct of Spain manifeſtly ſhows what the Engliſh and Dutch are to expect in relation to redreſſing their Grievances about Commerce and Navigation; from whence it's reaſonably concluded that this Peace cannot be a laſting one, ſeeing no Body can ſuppoſe that theſe Powers can ſo far deviate from their true Intereſt, as ſtill to ſuffer the Spaniards to commit Depredations on their trading Subjects, on whom ſo greatly depends the Foundation of their Power and Riches.

From London, That by an Expreſs arrived there Advices were brought, that his Majeſty was detained at Helvoetſluys laſt Thurſday (the 16th December) by contrary Winds in good Health. That four independant Companies will be ſent in the Spring to Georgia; that ſome Promotions will be made in the Army, and our Forces be augmented. That the Wheel of Fortune, Capt Maddox from Honduras, with the Free Maſon, Capt. Phœnix from Jamaica, were both taken and condemn'd by a Spaniſh Man of War near the Havana.

That the Warlike Preparations at Barcelona are revived and carried on with great Vigour; above 100 Merchant Ships have been embargo'd in that Port within a ſhort time: Moreover, the Deſign attributed to the Spaniards, of ſending a Squadron of Men of War to the Weſt-Indies, is talked of with greater Confidence than ever; but they will hardly find us unprepared, ſince eight Men of War, are as we hear, ordered to be commiſſioned and equipt immediately, either to reinforce Sir John Norris's Squadron, or to be ſent wherever elſe there ſhall be Occaſion. The Greenwich, a 40 Gun Ship, and two 20 Gun Ships, are to proceed out of hand to their Stations in the Weſt-Indies.

From Conſtantinople, of the 30th of October, that the Grand Signior had received an extraordinary Expreſs, with the News, that the Seraskie, of the Budziack Tartars had entred the Ukraine, at the Head of a large Body of Troops; that he had advanced to the Heighth of Czebrin, and after ravaging the Province, had carried 30,000 of the Ruſſian Inhabitants into Slavery. It is added, that on his Return he met with and defeated a Detachment of 5000 Ruſſian Troops, and took from them a Convoy of 400 Waggons, which were conducting to Count Munich's Army. The Ottoman Court was ſo elated at this Succeſs, that Notice was immediately given of it to the People, by a treble Diſcharge of the Seraglio and Leander's Tower; and a full Account of the whole Affair imparted to the Marquis de Villeneuve, the French Ambaſſador, and the reſt of the foreign Miniſters. It is given out, that beſides the Peace, there is an offenſive and defenſive Alliance concluded between the Turks and the new Sophy of Perſia; and that Count Bonneval is endeavouring, with all his Power, to divert the Porte from all Thoughts of a Peace with Ruſſia.

CHARLES-TOWN, February 19.

Our Government at preſent is buſy in making all neceſſary Preparations to prevent an Invaſion; a new Battery is to be erected at White Point, and Veſſels well manned are ſent out to Cruize on this Coaſt. The Troop of Horſe Guards were muſtered yeſterday, and ordered to keep themſelves in readineſs to appear at the firſt Notice. Five Perſons more inliſted themſelves in ſaid Troop, and paid each 5 l. at their Admittance, which were ſpent that Evening. And to prevent any inward Troubles, an Act was paſſed on Saturday laſt, For eſtabliſhing and regulating of Patrols; wherein is enacted, That by the Commiſſioners therein named, in each Diſtrict, a number of Men not exceeding Fifteen, (each of them to have a Freehold of 50 Acres, or to pay 30 s. in the provincial Tax) ſhall be inliſted, who ſhall be willing to ſerve for a Twelve Month without receiving any Pay or Gratuity for ſuch their Service; and that in caſe of Default or Want of ſuch inliſted Patrol, the Captains of the ſeveral Companies of Militia ſhall draught out of ſuch of the Inhabitants, as they appear upon the Muſter Roll, of Horſe and Foot, a ſufficient Party of Men to ſerve as Patrols for the ſpace of two Months, and upon expiration of of their Service to draught out another Party of the ſame Number to ſerve for the ſame time, which Patrol Men ſhall provide themſelves and keep in readineſs for their Patrol Service, one good Horſe, one Gun or Piſtol, a Cutlaſh and a Cartridge-Box with at leaſt 12 Cartridges in it, and be obliged to ride one Night in every Week at leaſt. For their

Encouragement

Encouragement ſuch Perſons ſo long as they ſhall continue to ſerve without pay, they ſhall be excuſed from the Duties of the Militia from ſerving on Pariſh-Offices, from work on the High-Roads, and all Service and Attendance upon Juries.

Juſt now we hear, that the Spaniards have landed at Ediſtoe Iſland, and made two Engliſh Families Priſoners.

Boſton, Feb. 7. In a Letter from the Bay of Honduras, it is mentioned, that a Brigantine which ſail'd from Boſton ſome time ſince ſunk by the way, but no mention is made of either the Maſter's or Veſſel's Name.

By Capt. Everett, who arrived here laſt Week we are informed, that about twelve Days ago, on his Paſſage hither, he ſaw a Brigantine lying upon her ſide, with her upper Deck blow'd up, and all the Goods that were between Decks waſh'd away, that three of her dead Lights were ſtove into her Cabbin Windows, and that ſhe had a ſignal of Diſtreſs faſten'd to the main ſhrowds, but knows not where ſhe belonged; but by all probability ſhe belong'd to Boſton: He ſaw no Perſon on Board, ſo that it is hoped ſome Veſſel or other hath taken up the People that were on Board.
